WELCOME HOME: CREATING CONNECTIONS BETWEEN RESIDENTS AND THE COMMUNITY

The Resident's Voice is an opportunity for residents from facilities across the country to share their ideas about this year's Residents' Rights Month theme with other residents, ombudsmen, families, community members and nursing home staff.

Residents are encouraged to think about and respond to the following questions:

1. What is your favorite memory of growing up in your community?
2. What was your favorite community event growing up?
3. What does it mean to be part of a community?
4. Why is it important to you to have community members come into your home/facility?

Residents can respond to the questions in writing (poems, stories), through art of any kind or with video's/recordings. We will use one or two of the entries for the Residents' Rights Month packet and community outreach kit. We encourage facilities/families to frame resident entries and hang them in residents' rooms or other areas of the facility.

All submission are due July 11, 2011.

National Long-Term Care Residents' Rights Month will be celebrated in October 2011. Mark your calendars and plan to celebrate! Information and materials for Residents' Rights Month celebrations will be available on the Consumer Voice website at www.theconsumervoice.org

Resident submissions will be randomly displayed on the Consumer Voice and National Long-Term Ombudsman Resource Center websites in a section called “The Resident’s Voice.” Residents who participate will receive a certificate of participation. Please see the submission criteria and photo release forms.

Residents’ Rights Month is designated by the National Consumer Voice for Quality Long-Term Care and is celebrated in October each year to honor residents living in all long-term care facilities, including nursing homes, sub acute units, assisted living, board and care and retirement communities. It is a time for celebration and recognition offering an opportunity for every facility to focus on and celebrate awareness of dignity, respect and the value of each individual resident.

This year’s theme “Welcome Home: Creating Connections Between Residents and the Community” is designed to call attention to the fact that residents are an important part of the communities they live in.

Send entries electronically to Abby Fanara at afanara@theconsumervoice.org.
