Christmas at Wurtland Nursing and Rehab

'Twas the night before Christmas and all through the home,
all the patients were stirring,
as if they were home.

Joyce in her gown and me in my cap,
We settle down for a long, winter nap.
The stockings were hung on our doors with care,
In hopes that soon some candy would be there.

When all of the sudden,
I heard such a clatter
I jumped out of bed

To see what was the matter.

Out in the hallway, I saw quite a sight.
Sarah telling Derika, Margarete, Missy, and Pam
"Go back to bed and turn out the light"

"MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL"

and

"To all a good night..."
