NORC App for Ombudsman Programs Now Available!

Produced by the National Ombudsman Resource Center (NORC), the LTC Ombudsman Resource Center app was designed in collaboration with State Ombudsmen, program representatives, and stakeholder feedback to help Long-Term Care Ombudsman programs (LTCOPs) access key resources while working in the field.

In this app, users can find consumer fact sheets, information on federal laws and regulations, resources on long-term care issues, materials related to the National Ombudsman Reporting System (NORS), and contact information for Ombudsman programs around the nation. The NORC website is filled with information and resources to support and inform LTCOPs across the country. The app provides key information from the NORC website in an easy to access format.

To download the app search, "LTC Ombudsman Resource Center" in the Apple or Google Play Store. If you have any questions, email ombudcenter@theconsumervoce.org.

Antipsychotics in Community Settings

The Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) along with the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS), the Health Resources & Services Administration (HRSA), and the Administration for Community Living (ACL) have released guidance on inappropriate use of antipsychotics for older adults and individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities in community settings. This guidance is intended primarily for physicians and other prescribers as well as support staff, administrators, and caregivers working with people with dementia and persons with intellectual and developmental disabilities in community settings. The guidance reviews the issue of inappropriate antipsychotic use and provides principles of care to be considered when developing a care plan. Principles of care include: assessment, goals of care, care plan including non-pharmacologic approaches and treatment, monitoring and reassessment, and preventing caregiver burnout. The guidance also addresses workforce training. Read the guidance here.

New Resources Available for Residents’ Rights Month Activities

New resources are available to begin planning your Residents’ Rights Month activities. Additional information about Residents’ Rights Month is available on our website.

DIY Door Hanger:
This residents’ rights activity combines the fun creative release of decorating door hangers with an opportunity to discuss this year’s theme for Residents’ Rights Month – Stand for Quality. Print the black and white “I Stand for Quality” door hangers for each resident participating in the activity and while residents decorate their door hangers, facilitate a discussion about quality. Encourage residents to display their completed door hangers on their doors to show that they stand for quality. Discussion questions and additional instructions are available here.
Activity Calendar
The 2019 Residents’ Rights Month Activity Calendar provides ideas for events and activities throughout the month of October. Events and activities listed highlight this year’s theme “Stand for Quality” and provide an opportunity for education, discussion, and community-building for residents, staff, and family members.

Additional activities for residents, staff, and Ombudsmen are available on our website.

HHS Issues Final Conscience Rule

The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights issued the Final Conscience Rule. The rule protects individuals and health care entities from discrimination on the basis of their exercise of conscience. The rule is intended to protect healthcare entities and professionals who decline to participate in actions that violate their conscience and religious freedom. Read more about the rule here.

Consumer Voice will be analyzing the final rule. Stay tuned for more information and Consumer Voice's perspective.
