

The National Consumer Voice for Quality Long-Term Care (formerly NCCNHR) is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization founded in 1975 by Elma Holder. We represent the consumer voice at the national level for quality long-term care, services and supports by:

- Advocating for public policies that support quality care and quality of life responsive to consumers' needs in all long-term care settings;
- Empowering and educating consumers and families with the knowledge and tools they need to advocate for themselves;
- Training and supporting individuals and groups that empower and advocate for consumers of long-term care; and
- Promoting the critical role of direct-care workers and best practices in quality-care delivery.

You can support our advocacy by becoming a member. Each year-long membership is open to anyone interested in supporting and advocating for quality long-term care.

Membership Benefits Include:

- Free subscription to The Voice, our weekly e-newsletter filled with policy updates, information about resources of interest, notice of upcoming meetings and events from the Consumer Voice and other organizations, and much more ...;
- Significantly discounted rates for the annual conference registration, webinars, publications, and other events;
- Access to our quarterly calls specifically for members which include policy updates, guest speakers, and dialogue on important, current issues;
- Supporting Consumer Voice's advocacy for quality care, quality of life, and protection of rights for all persons receiving long-term care;
- Save money if you have 2 or more people in a group that are interested in Consumer Voice membership

Group membership entitles up to 4 individuals from your organization to participate in member activities, and to obtain conference registration and publication discounts.
