Residents’ Rights Month 2012

National Long-Term Care Residents’ Rights Month is a time to focus on and celebrate awareness of dignity, respect and the value of individuals living in long-term care facilities. This year’s theme was selected to call attention to residents’ voting rights in long-term care facilities.

www.theconsumervoice.org