National Long-Term Care Residents' Rights Week 2009
Proclamation

Hear Our Voice: Residents in Long-Term Care Facilities
Speak Out About Residents’ Rights

Whereas, there are more than 1.5 million individuals living in 16,000 nursing homes; and 1 million individuals living in 50,000 board and care/assisted living facilities in the U.S.; and

Whereas, the federal Nursing Home Reform Act of 1987 guarantees residents their individual rights in order to promote and maintain their dignity and autonomy; and

Whereas, all residents should be aware of their rights so they may be empowered to live with dignity and self-determination; and

Whereas, we wish to honor and celebrate these citizens, to recognize their rich individuality, and reaffirm their rights as community members and citizens, including the right to have a say in their care; and

Whereas, individuals and groups across the country will be celebrating Residents’ Rights Week with the theme—“Hear Our Voice: Residents in Long-Term Care Facilities Speak Out About Residents’ Residents”—to emphasize the importance of affirming these rights through facility practices, public policy and resident-centered decision-making that impacts quality of care and quality of life.

Now, therefore, I, ________________________, Governor of the State of ______________, do hereby proclaim October 4 – 10, 2009 as National Long-Term Care Residents’ Rights Week, in the State of ______________, and encourage all citizens to join me in these important observances.

Signed this _____ day of _______ 2009
