

2018 Resident's Voice Challenge

Announcing the 2018 Resident's Voice Challenge! Creative writing and artistic expression are meaningful and compelling ways to highlight the importance of residents' rights and how these rights can be carried out in all long-term care settings.

Residents' Rights Month is designated by the Consumer Voice and is celebrated in October each year to honor residents living in all long-term care facilities and consumers receiving care in their homes and communities.

For this year's Resident's Voice Challenge, residents are encouraged to pick up their pens, dust off their type writers or use a computer to display their writing or artistic skills by submitting essays, poems, artwork, drawings, or videos related to the theme for Residents' Rights Month 2018 "Speak Up: Know Your Rights and How to Use Them."

Residents are encouraged to answer one of the following questions:

1. What do you want people to know about you and how you like to receive care?
2. Share an example of how you exercise your rights on an ongoing basis.
3. How do you work with staff, family and other residents to promote quality care and what can they do to help reach that goal?
4. If you could give one piece of advice to a new resident about exercising their rights, what would it be?

Residents and consumers are encouraged to be creative when crafting their entry. Possible types of entries include:

- Video or audio recording
 - If you submit a video, it could be featured on the Consumer Voice homepage or on Facebook or Twitter. We will notify those who are chosen to be posted on our homepage.
- Essay
