

Harriet Caton

Harriet Caton, my beautiful mother. After four months of sitting in the nursing home without any visitors and restricted from going outdoors, the loneliness and boredom took the life right out of her.

There was no medical event, just no more life for her to live. One day last July she didn't get out of bed and she died 4 days later.