

This hand-drawing was submitted by George Vanasdalan in Millersburg, PA.

His mother is his roommate at the nursing home, so he drew this picture of her with two nurses flanking her. He chose them "because they take exceptional care of his mom and they work extremely hard every day."