

Being able to identify and express my needs and wants empowers me. Every person on earth deserves food, clothing, shelter, safety, and to enjoy life. Making connections, listening, and talking to others contributes to my quality of life. Enough resources through family, friends, and staff keeps Benedictine beautiful and orderly.

-Jaentra Green Gardener